

This presentation will discuss clinical practice and research of music therapy for persons who are approaching the end of life.

Clinical issues, clinical vignettes and various music therapy strategies will be highlighted.

Cheryl Dileo, PhD, MT-BC, holds the Laura H. Carnell Professor of Music Therapy. She is coordinator of the PhD Programm in Music Therapy and director of the Arts and Quality of Life Research Center at Temple University, Philadelphia, USA.

Leopold-Mozart-Zentrum der Universität Augsburg
Maximilianstraße 59,
Augsburg

17. März 2017,
19 Uhr Konzertsaal

Cheryl Dileo, USA

Intimate Moments: Music Therapy at the End of Life